EASTERN DATES TO NOVEMBER 2

Prussian Reserves called Out

LONDON, Nov 1.—The [illegible] says the Prussian landwehr reserves have been called out. A corresponding exhaustion of the German strength is inferred.

Another Proclamation from Gambetta.

TOURS, Nov 1.—Gambetta has issued a proclamation urging the people to wipe out the late dishonors.

Dispatches via London

LONDON, Nov 1.—The Electeur Libre prints a speech made by Favre on the 11th saying that the Orleans Princes have an army of 100,000 in the West.

A telegram from Brussels states that a courier is waiting at Cassel to bring to Versailles the result of the conference now proceeding at Wilhelmshohe between Eugenie, the Emperor and Bazaine.

A correspondent at Versailles says the effect of winter is commencing to show itself in the army. German losses from sickness amounted to 2,000 per day.

King William has determined to review his troops and then return home.

The ruin of Chateau Dun is beyond description. The destruction is more than at Bazelles. The Bavarians are the most cruel of all the troops.

LONDON, Nov 1.—The first batch of Americans left Paris on October 25th and arrived in London to-day. A second American party left on the 26th.

LONDON, Nov 1.—The Germans will open the bombardment of Paris with 200 siege guns.

Bazaine's order of the day announcing the capitulation of Metz is published. It justifies the act and exhorts the troops to submission.

Admiral Fourrichon refuses to sign any paper censuring Bazaine.

Marshal Vaillant has been expelled from France.

Advices from Bahia to Oct 10th state that the French gunboat [illegible] was captured by the German barks [illegible] and [illegible].

Tribune's Dispatches.

LONDON, Nov 1.—Tribune cable.—A Tribune's correspondent writes from Hamburg on the 20th that an official communication to the authorities states that a French fleet of twelve ships having on board 800 landing troops, had sailed from Dunkirk intending a descent on the North Sea coast. Preparations were immediately made for defense. The garrison consisting of eight battalions, landwehr and reserve battalions of the Fifteenth Seventh and Sixth regiments were ordered to be ready to march at a half hour's notice. One half had already been sent to reinforce Cuxhaven. All pilot boats at the mouth of the Elbe have been brought in and the light vessels and buoys removed.

The Tribune's correspondent telegraphs to-day from Tours that Russian emissaries have been proposing to buy the French fleet, offering certain political inducements in addition to a large price, but have had no success.

Bourbaki's resignation has been accepted. Negotiations for an armistice have probably failed. England's recent movement is regarded as damaging to negotiations and both parties are inclined to look upon her influence with suspicion and disfavor.

Burnside's mission was to offer France on the part of the King of Prussia a semi-armistice of thirty days or longer, during the first fifteen days of which officials would be allowed to pass from between the lines and departments to arrange the preliminaries of election. As soon as these were complete there would be an armistice of forty-eight hours all over France to admit a perfectly free election and a semi-armistice of fifteen days or longer to enable delegates elected to proceed to Paris and deliberate upon terms of peace.

The Portuguese delegation is reported to have left Paris for Tours.

Spain Finds a King

MADRID, Nov 1.—It is said a written acceptance of the Spanish crown was received from the Duke of Aosta to-day.

EASTERN STATES

BUFFALO, Nov 1.—At six minutes past five this afternoon another shock of earthquake was felt at this place. It was short but sharp. No damage done.

NEW YORK, Nov 1.—A refrigerator car loaded with beef arrived to-day, the contents being in a fine state of preservation.

WAR MISCELLANY

The French army has several women surgeons and it is said they can take off a limb so nicely that a man enjoys it after he becomes accustomed to it. No man who has had a couple of legs cut off by a woman will ever afterward allow a man to cut a leg off for him if he can help it.

The exact text of the dispatch which the Duc d'Aumale sent in answer to the offers made him on several sides to elect him to the Constituent Assembly is as follows: "Always ready to serve my country, I accept the candidature. This is my programme: Actual adhesion to the government which fights and negotiates. Future adhesion to the government freely chosen by the Constituent Assembly. Honorable peace. Liberty, order, probity."

Says the London Telegraph: Germany, be it clearly understood, is suffering well nigh as heavily as France from the prolongation of the campaign, every day of which aggravates indescribably the privations of thousands of families. The mighty roar of jubilations that has resounded throughout the length and breadth of the Vaterland after each successive victory of the German arms has all but drowned the cries of distress that arise from every town and village, or at least has prevented them from being heard over the frontier; but none the less is it true—too true—the war, only two months old though it be, has proved itself already a hideous calamity to Germany, and if it lasts two months longer, the disaster will be overwhelming and well nigh irremediable.

Charles Sumner delivered a lecture in Boston on the 20th ult. on the European war, in which he threw all the blame on the Emperor, sought to exculpate the French people, justified the Germans in defending themselves, arraigned them for continuing the fight after Sedan, and yet inconsistently admitted that they have a right to full guarantees for the future against a repetition of such an attack. He sympathizes with the Republic and is hopeful of a Republic of the United States of Europe, from which the peoples of the Old World may be permanently relieved of the warlike trial and settlement of their disputes. He thinks the best guarantee the French Republic can give to Germany for future good behavior is the disbandment of the standing army of France.

Edmond About, by Paris an reputed a statesman as well as a philosopher and literary gentleman, has recently issued a bull against the Germans. He says amongst other things that they have accepted none of the reforms introduced by modern civilization except the improvements made in the art of destructive warfare. He may find a good many Frenchmen ready to swallow this statement, but not many others. What does he say to the Prussian system of free schools, to the German feature of free churches and religion, to the Zollverein which gives wings to commerce, and the railways and telegraphs and steamships with which Germany is better supplied than France? What has he to say to such manufacturing cities as Elberfeldt, such immortal literary names as Goethe, Schiller, such philosophers as Humboldt, and such far-seeing statesmen as Bismarck? Perhaps About thinks all these things of less account in the sum of modern civilization than the Academy of Sciences, the revolution of Robespierre, the novels of Dumas, the fashions dictated by Eugenie and the millions wasted in making Paris the favorite resort of fashionable loafers and gay women.

Nilsson wore $30,000 worth of diamonds at her Philadelphia concert, and Miss Shawdie and all her friends, who couldn't tell the difference between a recitative and a war whoop, consequently pronounced her singing perfectly splendid.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN

Metz not Surrendered

TOURS, Nov 2.—A dispatch has been received here from Arlon, Belgium, which announces that Metz has not capitulated. That the garrisons, forts and towns refuse to agree to the capitulation, and that the Prussians will resume hostilities upon the place.

News from French Sources

LONDON, Nov 2.—A deputation of 2,000 persons called upon Gambetta yesterday to petition for the reorganization of the scattered forces now operating independently in the various departments. Gambetta answered that the salvation of the people was on their own heads, that Government could supply them with arms.

Authorities at Tours ascribe the loss of Dijon to the incompetency of Garibaldi's band, disorganized officers and their crude organization, which relieved the regular French forces at the moment when the latter were most needed.

The Moniteur complains of the inactivity of the army of Loire which it says now numbers fully 100,000 men.

Latest advices from Paris represent the ardor of the people as unabated. There is no doubt of their ability to hold out for weeks. The supply of fresh meat is said to be sufficient to hold out until the 15th of December, and salted provisions for five weeks longer. On the 25th ult a riot occurred in the market of arrondissement des Batignolles. The population rushed into the market place clamoring to be supplied with meat. The outbreak was suppressed without serious difficulty.

The Prussians have succeeded in placing batteries at Courtevoie, Meudon and Bagneux.

News from Paris

TOURS, Nov 2.—News from Paris is to October 29th. The people are strong in their determination to defend the city to the last. There are a great number of enrollments in the National Guard in order to strengthen fortifications. Private subscriptions to pay for cannon for works have already reached a sufficient amount to purchase 1,000 pieces, which were being rapidly made. It is estimated that rations of fresh and salt meats will subsist the city until the end of January. Journals assert that bread and meat will not be dealt out in rations until the first of January, the supply on hand being ample. Work on fortifications is progressing actively in the direction of Bagneux. In spite of the determined opposition of the enemy a large redoubt was in course of construction there which was expected to add largely to the defensive strength of that line. The Prussians are constructing heavy batteries at Vesenon, before Courbevoie and at Bas Meudon. They have also planted heavy artillery at Commercy le Roi.

On the 27th inst. Trochu received dispatches from Tours dated October 24th, announcing the escape of Paul Cassagnac from the Prussians and arrival at Vienna, which is confirmed.

The landwehr doing duty with the army at Metz will be disbanded and sent home.

The railroad bridge between Strasburg and Kehl has been repaired.

The Germans deny French reports of a victory at Mont Belard, asserting that there were no German troops in that vicinity.

It is said that Garibaldi's expedition is paralyzed by the jealousy of the French officers.

Address by Gambetta

TOURS, Nov 2.—The deputation which called upon Gambetta last night were the authorized representatives of political reunions throughout the country. They were accompanied by several thousand sympathizers with their object and presented Government resolutions asking for a levy en masse and the appointment of a committee for no department to be charged [illegible] ing the popular uprising. Gambetta addressed the deputation, saying that it were better for Frenchmen that they determine to conquer or die. The Republic cannot fall if the people will that it stand. The Government has determined to bring every energy to the task of defense. Efforts have been made and are still being made to procure arms and munitions. The people must assist the Government in this as in other efforts. They must be self-reliant, and must not expect the Government to surmount obstacles which they themselves might remove. All must unite in saving the nation.

VERSAILLES, Nov 2—via London.—The loss of the 2d division of infantry on the 30th ult was 34 officers and 449 men. Fort Mont Valerien fired actively last evening and this morning but without doing any damage whatever. Thiers reports nothing new from Paris. Fifty-three eagles were taken by Germans at Metz. The outposts of Gen. Werder's command encountered the French near Gray, on the 27th ult, two days before the occupation of Dijon, and repulsed them at all points, taking 13 officers and 500 men prisoners.

Miscellaneous

TOURS, Nov 2.—The Government has established a prize court at Havre and the citizens have subscribed two million francs to the new national loan.

BRUSSELS, Nov 2.—Italy has been notified that Austria will not interfere in the Roman question. She suggests however that a conference of other powers be asked to adjust the guarantee which Italy shall offer to the Pope.

LONDON, Nov 2.—A dispatch to the Times dated Versailles Tuesday says negotiations between the North and South German States looking to German union are progressing favorably. It is decided that King William is to assume title of Emperor of Germany. Eighty American families have left Paris under the protection of the Portuguese Envoy. Geographically new names are being substituted for French ones in the provinces of Alsace. Gambetta's proclamation and circular are bitterly condemned by France. All foreigners in Paris have been offered passes to leave the city.

EASTERN STATES

NEW YORK, Nov 2.—Fears are entertained that the steamship [illegible] belonging to Messrs. C. H. Mallory & Co's line hence to Galveston has been lost with all on board. This vessel left New York on her regular trip for that port on Saturday Oct 15th, and had no accident of a disastrous nature happened, she would have been at Galveston over a week ago. The latest intelligence received by her owners of her whereabouts is that contained in meagre reports from New Orleans, by the steamship Desoto, which announces that on the evening of the 19th, when off Jupiter Inlet, Florida, the missing steamship was seen by them, but since which time has not been heard from. The gravest apprehensions are felt by those who have relatives on board.

Robbing the Immigrants.

[From the Chicago Tribune Oct. 20.]

We understand that after a full consideration of the subject that Governors of several of the Western States have agreed to appoint delegates to meet in convention some time before the meeting of Congress, to adopt some united action to protect the immigrants who reach this country at New York. The State of New York some years ago, established a Board of Commissioners to protect, counsel and aid immigrants reaching this country. This board when organized and for years afterward conducted its business in a most humane and deserving manner and corrected many abuses, but like all other things in New York, it has been converted by Tammany Hall into a machine for the oppression and robbery of the class it was intended to be protected. The gentlemen who were members of the commission and performed its duties without compensation have been legislated out of office. The power of appointing the Commissioners has been taken away from the Governor and placed in the hands of the Mayor of New York city. What was intended as a great public charity has been converted into a source of revenue to Tammany. The Commissioners are now designated by Tweed and Sweeny. One of the recently appointed Commissioners resigned an office worth $7,500 a year to take the place of Commissioner, nominally without any salary.

The number of immigrants reaching New York annually will average 400,000. From each of these is collected a tax of $2 50. Every passenger, old and young, pays this tax. This money is paid over to the Commissioners. The aggregate sum thus extorted from these poor victims amounts to about a million and a half of dollars, and the extortion is still going on. It is needless to say that not a dollar of it has gone into the State Treasury. The annual revenue derived by Tammany Hall from this source is about $800,000.

This tax was first levied on the plea that it was necessary to protect the State from pauper emigration. But that excuse has long since ceased to have any foundation. The shipment of paupers or criminals to the United States is an international offence which would justify the United States in reshipping the load back to the place they came from. There are no paupers reaching this country in the sense that this tax was originally intended to meet. But if there were, there is no more right or authority to levy such tax on a person reaching New York by way of the ocean than there is of collecting it from travellers reaching that city by rail.

The injustice of this infamous tax is further shown in the fact that multitudes of these immigrants merely land in New York, having no intention to remain there. They leave their homes in Europe for Pennsylvania, Illinois, Michigan, Kansas, Minnesota, Colorado, etc., and merely pass from Castle Garden to the steam or railway that bears them to their destination. The State of New York, however, taxes them $2 50 per head for the privilege of landing in the dock in New York, for which they are free to depart. There are now settled all over the Western States a million or more of persons from whom New York city has exacted the tax of $2 50 per head for the privilege of merely passing through the city. This tax is collected at no other port in the United States nor in Canada. Immigrants reaching the United States by way of Canada pay no such tax. It is levied exclusively upon those landing in New York city.

The object of the proposed convention is to take united action in demanding the abolition of this tax upon travellers and to demand that that port of New York shall be free to those who may choose to enter it. It is also proposed to urge upon Congress the propriety of establishing on the site of one of the government forts in the harbor of New York a general depot for immigrants where they can be protected from the villains who rob them, where they can get redress for grievances on shipboard, and whence they can be forwarded to their destination. It is proposed to take this business out of the hands of the thieves who govern New York city and place it in the hands of the public authority of the Federal Government. [illegible] Tammany Hall will object to being despoiled of this annual source of revenue. The distributors of these millions of illegal and oppressive taxes [illegible] Yorkers at the [illegible] by a tax of $2 50 per head for the privilege of passing through [illegible] to the West; the time has come when the United States must interfere in the interest of law, justice, and the public welfare. The right to tax travellers cannot be maintained upon any pretext.

The World has discovered great Democratic gains in every election won by the Republicans for the last ten years, the last Pennsylvania election being no exception. The Tribune thinks that if the party has been gaining at such a rate it is about time for it to catch up and [illegible] a [illegible] thing.

It has been decided that those of the wounded Prussians who are convalescent will not be sent to the front again, as has heretofore been the case, but to the reserve stations of their respective regiments.

Tribune's Dispatches.

LONDON Nov 1—Tribune cable. A Tribune's correspondent writes from Hamburg on the 20th that an official communication to the authorities states that a French fleet of twelve ships, having on board 800 landing troops, had sailed from Dunkirk intending a descent on the North Sea coast. Preparations were immediately made for defense. The garrison, consisting of eight battalions, landwehr and reserve battalions of the Fifteenth Seventh and Sixth regiments, were ordered to be ready to march at a half hour's notice. One half had already been sent to reinforce Cuxhaven. All pilot boats at the mouth of the Elbe have been brought in, and the light vessels and buoys removed.

The Tribune's correspondent telegraphs to day from Tours that Russian emissaries have been proposing to buy the French fleet, offering certain political inducements, in addition to a large price but have had no success.

Bourbaki's resignation has been accepted. Negotiations for an armistice have probably failed. England's recent movement is regarded as damaging to negotiations and both parties are inclined to look upon her influence with suspicion and disfavor.

Burnside's mission was to offer France, on the part of the King of Prussia, a semi armistice of thirty days or longer during the first fifteen days of which officials would be allowed to pass from between the lines and departments to arrange the preliminaries of election. As soon as these were complete there was to be an armistice of forty eight hours all over France to admit a perfectly free election, and a semi armistice of fifteen days or longer, to enable delegates elected to proceed to Paris and deliberate upon terms of peace.

WAR MISCELLANY

The French army has several women surgeons and it is said they can take off a limb so nicely that a man enjoys it after he becomes accustomed to it. No man who has had a couple of legs cut off by a woman will ever afterward allow a man to cut a leg off for him if he can help it.

The exact text of the dispatch which the Duc d'Aumale sent in answer to the offers made him on several sides to elect him to the Constituent Assembly is as follows: "Always ready to serve my country, I accept the candidature. This is my programme: Actual adhesion to the government which fights and negotiates. Future adhesion to the government freely chosen by the Constituent Assembly. Honorable peace. Liberty, order probity."

Says the London Telegraph: Germany, be it clearly understood, is suffering well nigh as heavily as France from the prolongation of the campaign, every day of which aggravates indescribably the privations of thousands of families. The mighty roar of jubilations that has resounded throughout the length and breadth of the Vaterland after each successive victory of the German arms has all but drowned the cries of distress that arise from every town and village, or at least has prevented them from being heard over the frontier; but none the less is it true—too true—the war only two months old though it be has proved itself already a hideous calamity to Germany and if it lasts two months longer the disaster will be overwhelming and well nigh irremediable.

Charles Sumner delivered a lecture in Boston on the 26th ult., on the European war, in which he threw all the blame on the Emperor; sought to exculpate the French people; justified the Germans in defending themselves; arraigned them for continuing the fight after Sedan; and yet inconsistently admitted that they have a right to full guarantees for the future against a repetition of such an attack. He sympathizes with the Republic and is hopeful of a Republic of the United States of Europe, from which the peoples of the Old World may be permanently relieved of the warlike trial and settlement of their disputes. He thinks the best guarantee the French Republic can give to Germany for future good behavior is the disbandment of the standing army of France.

Edmond About by Parisian repute a statesman as well as a philosopher and literary gentleman has recently issued a bull against the Germans. He says amongst other things that they have accepted none of the reforms introduced by modern civilization except the improvements made in the art of destructive warfare. He may find a good many Frenchmen ready to swallow this statement but not many others. What does he say to the Prussian system of free schools, to the German feature of free churches and religion, to the Zollverein, which gives wings to commerce and the railways and telegraphs and steamships with which Germany is better supplied than France? What has he to say to such manufacturing cities as Elberfeldt, such imperishable literary names as Goethe, Schiller, such philosophers as Humboldt, and such far seeing statesmen as Bismarck? Perhaps About thinks all these things of less account in the sum of modern civilization than the Academy of Sciences, the revolution of Robespierre, the novels of Dumas, the fashions dictated by Eugenie and the millions wasted in making Paris the favorite resort of fashionable loafers and gay women.

Robbing the Immigrants.

We understand that, after a full consideration of the subject that Governors of several of the Western States have agreed to appoint delegates to meet in convention some time before the meeting of Congress, to adopt some united action to protect the immigrants who reach this country at New York. The State of New York, some years ago, established a Board of Commissioners to protect, counsel and aid immigrants reaching this country. This board when organized and for years afterward conducted its business in a most humane and deserving manner, and corrected many abuses, but, like all other things in New York, it has been converted by Tammany Hall into a machine for the oppression and robbery of the class it was intended to be protected. The gentlemen who were members of the commission, and performed its duties without compensation, have been legislated out of office. The power of appointing the Commissioners has been taken away from the Governor and placed in the hands of the Mayor of New York city. What was intended as a great public charity has been converted into a source of revenue to Tammany. The Commissioners are now designated by Tweed and Sweeny. One of the recently appointed Commissioners resigned an office worth $7,500 a year to take the place of Commissioner nominally without any salary.

The number of immigrants reaching New York annually will average 400,000. From each of these is collected a tax of $2.50. Every passenger, old and young, pays this tax. This money is paid over to the Commissioners. The aggregate sum thus extorted from these poor victims amounts to about a million and a half of dollars, and the extortion is still going on. It is needless to say that not a dollar of it has gone into the State Treasury. The annual revenue derived by Tammany Hall from this source is about $800,000.

This tax was first levied on the plea that it was necessary to protect the State from pauper emigration. But that excuse has long since ceased to have any foundation. The shipment of paupers or criminals to the United States is an international offence which would justify the United States in reshipping the load back to the place they came from. There are no paupers reaching this country, in the sense that this tax was originally intended to meet. But if there were there is no more right or authority to levy such tax on a person reaching New York by way of the ocean than there is of collecting it from travellers reaching that city by rail.

The injustice of this infamous tax is further shown in the fact that multitudes of these immigrants merely land in New York, having no intention to remain there. They leave their homes in Europe for Pennsylvania Illinois Michigan Kansas Minnesota, Colorado, etc. and merely pass from Castle Garden to the steamer or railway that bears them to their destination. The State of New York, however taxes them $2.50 per head for the privilege of landing on the dock in New York after which they are free to depart. There are now settled all over the Western States a million or more of persons, from whom New York city has exacted the tax of $2.50 per head for the privilege of merely passing through that city. This tax is collected at no other port in the United States nor in Canada. Immigrants reaching the United States by way of Canada pay no such tax. It is levied exclusively upon those landing in New York city.

The object of the proposed convention is to take united action in demanding the abolition of this tax upon travellers and to demand that the port of New York shall be free to those who may choose to enter it. It is also proposed to urge upon Congress the propriety of establishing on the site of one of the government forts in the harbor of New York a general depot for immigrants where they can be protected from the villains who rob them where they can get redress for grievances on shipboard and whence they can be forwarded to their destination. It is proposed to take this business out of the hands of the thieves who govern New York city and to place it in the hands of officers holding authority from the Federal Government. Of course Tammany Hall will object to being despoiled of this immense revenue. The distributors of these millions of illegal and oppressive taxes will talk of State sovereignty and cry out against Federal interference but when New York city undertakes to levy a tax of $2.50 per head for the privilege of passing through her borders to the West the time has come when the United States must interfere in the interest of law justice and the public welfare. The right to tax travellers cannot be maintained upon any pretext.

The World has discovered "great Democratic gains" in every election won by the Republicans for the last ten years, the last Pennsylvania election being no exception. The Tribune thinks that if the party has been gaining at such a rate it is about time for it to catch up and ... something.

THURSDAY MORNING [illegible]

A Lame Excuse for a Great Swindle

[illegible] the [illegible] which the Herald attempts to [illegible] party [illegible] charge of having perpetrated a great swindle on the school fund

The Constitution expressly declares that the five hundred thousand acres [illegible] granted to this State for the purposes of internal improvement by Act of Congress approved September 4th 1841 shall be set apart as a separate and irreducible fund to be called the Common School Fund [illegible]

The assent of Congress has never been given to the diversion of the land as proposed by the Constitution, and hence the land above designated until such consent is given can only be used for the purpose of internal improvements as designated in the act making the appropriation

Here is an assertion which there are no facts to sustain. Until now it has always been assumed by all persons and parties that the consent of Congress was given to this appropriation. Under this view the lands have been selected by three successive administrations, and the selections have been accepted and approved at Washington. The people of Oregon asked through their Constitution that the five per cent proceeds of sales of public lands and the five hundred thousand acres granted by the act of Congress of 1841 should be allowed to go to the formation of a separate and irreducible school fund. Congress expressly declared that the five per cent of proceeds of sales should be devoted to internal improvement but was silent regarding the five hundred thousand [illegible] onable interpretation of this action on the part of Congress is that the consent of that body was given to the appropriation of the five hundred thousand acres to the school fund. The analogy of the Iowa case which has been produced frequently and commented on makes this interpretation certain. The weight of argument is decidedly in favor of the view that Congress did give its consent to the diversion of the land as proposed by our Constitution. And it certainly would not be in order for Oregon even were there some doubt in the case to renounce her own Constitution in favor of a doubtful theory. Since when did the Democratic party begin to subordinate State authority, in cases where that authority is clear and certain to a doubtful authority or power on the part of the United States

The truth is these lands belong to the school fund and Congress will so declare precisely as it did in the similar case in regard to Iowa. The attempted seizure of the lands is a plundering game and the people of Oregon will hold the authors of the swindle to responsibility for it, notwithstanding the fact that Gov Grover and his closest personal and political friends may make much money out of the scheme

The Impending Crisis in New York

On the 26th ult. Congressman Brooks made a speech to a Democratic crowd in New York City exhorting them to violent resistance in case any attempt should be made by the Federal authorities to interfere with Tammany's favorite system of fraudulent voting. The New York Herald has published a series of articles on the situation in that city in which it has repeatedly expressed a fear that the bloody intentions of the Tammany leaders will culminate in sanguinary riots on election day. It says "remembering the July riots of 1863 we know how great a fire sometimes a [illegible] have the dangerous class in this city as they have in all other large cities and we know that in times of great political excitement a few reckless demagogues may lead these dangerous classes into mischief. We know, too that the Democratic party in this city has a large body of followers from these classes who follow only their own sweet will and that these disturbing elements have given to our city elections too much of brutal control and too much of the character of a mockery and a farce. Of the laws which it is proposed to resist the Herald says

There is nothing in these laws against which any honest voter, in favor of honest elections, can or will enter an objection. The constitutional authority of Congress as exercised, is full and clear. Congress has the express power to "pass a uniform rule of naturalization," the power "to prescribe the time, places and manner of holding elections for Congressmen, excepting only the place where Senators shall be chosen," the power to enforce the fifteenth amendment in reference to the rights of colored citizens at the polls and the general and comprehensive power "to make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers and all other powers vested by this constitution in the Government of the United States or in any department or officer thereof." These new election laws of Congress, therefore for the special prevention of frauds in elections for members of Congress, for the enforcement of the rights of colored voters, and for the suppression in all elections of frauds in naturalization papers are perfectly constitutional and will be satisfactory to all honest voters if pushed to the most rigid enforcement.

Let the fact be notorious that the Democratic politicians and journals generally, and especially the fire-eating State sovereignty copperhead leaders and organs of this city, are perfectly furious in their denunciations of these acts of Congress as radical usurpations and unconstitutional atrocities which must be resisted even to the last extremity

Knowing that the law will be enforced the Herald makes repeated appeals to the Tammany leaders to give more moderate counsels and not resort to any such desperate expedients as a violent conflict with the United States authorities

The Democratic organ in Douglas county tells us that a few days ago H[illegible] Strahan, of Benton county introduced a memorial asking Congress to abrogate such parts of the Burlingame treaty as work a hardship upon the people of the Pacific coast. The memorial was opposed by every Radical member of the Legislature. Simply because every Radical member knew that no part of the Burlingame treaty works a hardship. The Chinese in the United States gain no new rights by that treaty. If the treaty were abrogated they could remain here on the same terms as now. The Radical members didn't want to make fools of themselves

Chief Justice Chase in [illegible] continued ill health will not be able to take his seat on the bench of the Supreme Court on its reassembling. A Washington dispatch to the Tribune says

Although his sickness is not of a dangerous character his physicians have urged upon him additional rest and freedom from the care and labor which attend an important session of the Court and he has therefore decided to remain away until early in January. His city residence here has been given up and when he returns he will reside on his farm a few miles out of the city [illegible] goods have been removed. The Chief Justice has been suffering from indigestion for several months but is much better now, being able to walk with friends and attend to his correspondence. After the adjournment of the court last spring he made a tour to the Lakes but was compelled to abandon an extended trip in consequence of his illness. He spent much of the summer at the country seat of his son-in-law Senator Sprague at Narragansett R I where he still remains

Why Mr Motley was Removed

[illegible] Washington [illegible] ation [illegible] explanation of the reasons why Mr Motley was removed from his position as United States Minister at the Court of St James. From this letter the following important facts are [illegible]

First That when the President came into office he sought to conciliate the good will and support of Mr Sumner. It was at the request of the latter solely that Mr Motley was appointed Minister

Second That after Mr Motley's appointment he submitted a long paper containing his views on the Alabama controversy which Mr Fish read and returned with the remark that the President had other views which he desired Mr Motley to carry out and which Mr Fish communicated to Mr Motley

Third That on his arrival in London Mr Motley wholly disregarded his instructions and carried out his own private views

Fourth That Mr Motley was immediately censured for this act of insubordination and discourtesy and directed to represent the Government and not his own private opinions

Fifth That finding in Mr Sumner's disposition to support his Administration the President consulted with him as to the San Domingo treaty and that during an interview on this subject Mr Sumner led the President to expect his vote in favor of that treaty

Sixth That when Mr Sumner violently opposed the treaty the President considered himself absolved from any obligations to Mr Sumner or to Mr Motley, who was appointed solely as a personal favor to Mr Sumner

Seventh That Mr Motley refused to appoint as a favor to the President a son of Secretary Fish as Assistant Secretary of Legation at London although said to be in every way worthy of the position

Eighth That Mr Motley meddled in English politics and so conducted himself as to excite much feeling on the part of the leading politicians

Propositions to Purchase Indian Reservations

In yesterday's issue we spoke of the arrival in this city of Hon Vincent Colyer, of the Board of Indian Commissioners who is visiting the different Reservations to endeavor to effect the purchase of Indian title to the lands

Mr Colyer in company with his colleague Hon John V Farwell of Chicago visited the Osages in Southern Kansas and arranged with that tribe for the sale of their lands eight million acres and their removal into the Indian Territory. The proceeds of the sale which is made to actual settlers only after deducting the necessary expenses goes into the United States Treasury as a fund for the education and civilization of the Osages

A proposition having been brought before Congress for the sale of the lands belonging to the Oneidas in Northern Wisconsin, and the Umatillas in Oregon Mr Colyer by direction of the Board visited these tribes to ascertain their wishes, and if possible to reconcile them to the proposal

The Oneidas were removed from New York to their present location over thirty years ago and have rapidly advanced in civilization. They now occupy as good houses as any of the white people in the country villages of Oregon and have capacious barns with reaping and threshing machines and other modern improvements in agriculture all of which are the private property of the Indians themselves. The Umatillas also have many good farms which they are successfully cultivating and, though not as far advanced as the Oneidas, they are rapidly improving and will soon be self supporting

Both tribes seriously object to any diminution in their reservations and peremptorily refuse to be removed. The Commissioner thinks that with judicious and kind reasoning the Umatillas might be induced to consent to the sale of a portion of their present reservation and when the whole tribe return from their annual hunting for their winter's supply of venison on which they are now in part absent an effort will be made by the Government at Washington, to obtain their consent

Mr Colyer also visited the Nez Perces reservation in Idaho and found that tribe busily engaged in grinding their winter's supply of flour from wheat raised by themselves herding their ponies, of which they have large numbers and preparing their mat houses for the winter

Capt Sells, the present agent as well as Lieut Waum his predecessor have made many improvements in the Agency but the Indians are not as far advanced as they should be considering the large amounts the Government has heretofore appropriated for the education of the Nez Perce

POLITICAL NOTES

A year ago the Democrats of Cincinnati fused with the disaffected Republicans, and made a half and half ticket which was elected by nearly two thousand majority. Soon after the election the party hacks raised a howl and swore they would have been successful with a straight party ticket. This fall they had a ticket which was straight enough to suit them, and it was defeated by more than two thousand majority. All of which shows that "the people would rather not take their Democracy straight." And the more it is diluted the better they like it

When San Francisco gave Governor Haight an immense majority the politicians were astonished. Such a change was unaccountable. A change as remarkable has come over Luzerne county (Pa) which like Berks, has heretofore been regarded as one of the staunchest of Democratic counties—good for at least 3 000 majority. In 1866 Clymer (Dem) had 3 654 over Geary (Rep) in 1868 Seymour had 3 530 over Grant. This year Luzerne turns a complete somersault. L D Shoemaker (Rep) is elected to Congress by 591 majority and George W Woodard the present Democratic member of Congress—and by the way the ablest member of the minority in the Lower House—is defeated for County Judge, which position he preferred to a re-election to Congress by a majority of [illegible]. The Chairman of the House Committee of Ways and Means [illegible] his election in the Dayton District by about 100 votes. But it is said that more than this number of persons residing at the Soldiers Home near Dayton were not permitted to vote. The Constitution of Ohio prescribes the following conditions for a legal voter 1 That he should be a citizen of the United States over twenty one years of age 2 That he should be a resident of the State one year next preceding the election 3 That he should be a resident of the county or town the period required by law. The persons thus voting for member of Congress were not required to be a citizen of [illegible] it seen ugh that he is a citizen of the United States and has resided in [illegible] one year. All the residents at the Soldiers Home, nearly all aero voters within the meaning of the Constitution of that State. The Ohio Legislature at the last session chanced to have a Democratic majority and passed an act whereby students and residents at the Soldiers Home were excluded from voting. Under this law enough votes were ruled out to turn the scale against Schenck. If this is a correct statement of the case Schenck is pretty sure of another term in the House

A movement is on foot to induce the Government of the United States to organize a system of weather reports to be made by telegraph with a view to give information in advance of the approach and force of storms for the benefit of commerce on the lakes and seaboard. Arrangements for this purpose in Europe have been productive of beneficial results in the preservation of lives and property and if it is legitimate for Government to expend money in the improvement of harbors and the construction and equipment of light houses and beacons there can be no reason why it should not also provide for the transmission of useful meteorological intelligence with a view to increase the safety of navigation

Says the Jacksonville [illegible] The [illegible] of the Occidental Quartz mill has [illegible] ded successfully. Sixteen days run in crushing 112 tons of rock yielded a return of [illegible] of the precious metal valued at $6 6[illegible]. The rock was all taken out of the Timber [illegible] ledge discovered by Sam Bowden. Mr [illegible] deserves much credit in overcoming by perseverance and industry the many difficulties and discouragements that are sure to be at the path of the miner having only a small capital to commence with. He intends to erect an improved [illegible] apparatus and to get out a supply of rock for another run. We hope that this may encourage others to go to work and develop the mineral resources of Southern Oregon. There are many promising quartz ledges already discovered in this and adjacent counties but unless men will go to work on them instead of waiting for something to turn up, they will be of no benefit to any one

The Victoria Standard of October 27th chronicles the death of Peter Ogden a chief trader of the Hudson Bay Company at Stewart's Lake October 9th. His oldest son also died at New Caledonia October 11. Mr Peter Ogden formerly held a position under the Company as chief trader at Vancouver and was well known and greatly respected by many of our old citizens

Bazeilles after the Battle

[illegible] OF WAR IN THE NORTH [illegible] 3 000 INHABITANTS DESTROYED—A REMNANT OF EIGHTY PERSONS—HEARTRENDING MISERY

Tours Oct 19 — A correspondent who visited Sedan and Bazeilles gives an account of the scenes he witnessed. On October 7th he was informed that a truce had been concluded at Mezieres to last until the 13th in consequence of which he could go through to Rheims. Having a spare day he visited Bazeilles on foot as it was impossible to obtain a horse

The road was marked all the way with the evidences of war. Knapsacks, helmets, cartridge boxes were strewn along the roadside. The trees were scarred and shattered by shot and shell. At intervals the ground was broken by newly made graves

I have seen many towns at home said to have been destroyed by war. Desolate enough they looked but anything like Bazeilles was never even imagined. Here was a place with 3 000 inhabitants, entirely built of stone with literally not a single house left standing within the limits. Of the inhabitants all but eighty persons of all ages and sexes perished in the flames kindled by the exasperated Bavarians who were fired upon from the windows as they passed. At least that is their story of justification. The people quite a number of whom living among the ruins of the buildings with scarcely any shelter other than a few boards half burned declare that the destruction was entirely unprovoked. Be that as it may the desolation was complete even to the church and Chateau Turenne where the great Marshal was born. The rest [illegible]

Old men and children and fallen women among the ruins of the streets begging of visitors. The hardest heart could not resist the piteous appeals in the scene of such desolation. [illegible] have established a trade in relics, which helps them to eke out a scanty subsistence. All assist in the distribution of bread supplies by Belgian philanthropy. I witnessed the distribution and thus saw all the inhabitants remaining, who were to go to have. Among them was one old man eighty five years old who told me that he had [illegible] under Soult, and at Waterloo with the first Napoleon. He fondly laid his misfortune he laid all the blame to Bazaine who he firmly believes still lives and commands the Prussian army. His story of [illegible] strangely and quaintly mixed up with the recollections of Waterloo. I am not willing to believe his stories of the cruelty which he said was perpetrated by drunken soldiers. It is hard to believe that men can be so heartlessly brutal. I am bound to say the dreadful [illegible] to the Bazeilles is [illegible]

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A DEMOCRATIC SENATE AND [illegible]. Some time ago an item went the rounds of the press telling how a colored man had over one for a number of [illegible] the disabilities under which they labored which prevented any person not a holder of real estate from voting at the corporation election in Chestertown Md. It was alleged that he had given to thirty or forty of them a square foot of ground each and this meeting the requirements of the law they had voted and by their aid the Republicans had carried the town. Most people and many papers applauded the action, as it fulfilled the law and yet defeated the object of its passing the practical disfranchisement of [illegible]

The Democratic papers of Maryland particularly of the Eastern Shore counties however most of them subservient tools of landed aristocrats without the first instinct in favor of popular independence raised a great clamor over the thing as a fraud and a contemptible evasion of law and denounced all who aid [illegible] in the strongest language [illegible] sale of Maryland [illegible] we mistake not, an immaculate New York [illegible] denouncing [illegible] but the paper which above all [illegible] the county of this [illegible] Kent [illegible] published at Chestertown [illegible] their opinion on this

The last number of the [illegible] a newspaper published at Chestertown contains a listed copy of a deed now on file in the Land Record books of Kent county [illegible] Clerk of the Court by which [illegible] a citizen of Chestertown conveys to ninety five [illegible] that town to be held in common by them [illegible] of land on Mill street in [illegible] of [illegible] lot of land and the right to [illegible] which he [illegible] thus [illegible] this transaction

The entire [illegible] the deed is Hon [illegible] Vickers United States Senator from Maryland and one of the principal [illegible] of this [illegible] H Plummer editor of the Kent [illegible] who [illegible] the transaction [illegible] the first part of his [illegible] a colored man [illegible] that city and [illegible] office of Kent County on the 10th day of May [illegible] those named in it to vote at the election which it is alleged was carried by the Republicans by means of similar tactics on the part of a colored man. Two of those named in the deed are clergymen [illegible]

A WORD TO STERN FATHERS. It never can be too strongly impressed upon the mind that nothing releases a parent from his duties toward a child. No waywardness no rebellion no profligacy can ever justify a father in casting a son or daughter adrift. We hear of [illegible] it off without a shilling of [illegible] forbidden the [illegible] without any exception [illegible] proof that of whatever sins the [illegible] guilty the father is [illegible] guilty. No person [illegible] a father thus [illegible] is false to the trust he has himself imposed who thus thrusts off from him the [illegible] he called into being. A father should be governed by no motive but his child's best interests and a child's best interests can never be served by anything but the constant and loving care. If a child [illegible] that his influence is feared upon the [illegible] a separation between them [illegible] father in a [illegible] take many a [illegible] prodigal son who [illegible] has [illegible] and if he never [illegible] one atom of fatherly [illegible] so the man from his [illegible] guide so far [illegible]

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS

OF THE

Puget Sound Homestead Association

THE REGULAR QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE Stockholders of the Puget Sound Homestead Association will be held next Wednesday evening at [illegible] o'clock at the office of Russell & Ferry. Members are earnestly requested to be present

The lands of the Association are rapidly appreciating in value. The surveys of the Northern Pacific Railroad are rapidly progressing and will be vigorously pushed all winter. It is almost certain that the waters of the River and the Sound will be united by railroad the [illegible] year. The preliminary line already surveyed traverses our lands on the Newaukum river and the time is now come to consider the feasibility of starting a town there. An extensive region of fine farming land borders the Newaukum which though now sparsely settled is capable of supporting a large population, and the place where a railroad crosses the stream would seem the natural site for a thriving country town. The Association owns at the point 930 acres of rich bottom land. The day the railroad is completed between the Sound and the River this tract alone will be worth as much as all the lands of the Association cost and if well managed can be made to realize for the benefit of the stockholders far more than their whole investment

The following resolution will be offered for your consideration

Resolved That the President and Directors be authorized to give not exceeding one fourth of the Association lands on the Newaukum river to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company for the establishment of a depot at that point

BOARD OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS —The Board of Police Commissioners have elected A B Hallock, Esq President of the Board. As is provided by the amendment to the charter, the term of office for the first three Commissioners shall be respectively for one, two and three years, from the date of their appointment to be determined by them by lot as soon as the Board shall organize. In pursuance of the above Mr Hayden drew the short term, Mr Burke the two year term, and Mr Hallock the long term. It was [illegible] yesterday that Robert J Ladd Esq would be the Chief of Police. Bob is "foremost" the Oro Fino clique we understand

GONE HOME. Hon Cyrus Olney of Clatsop county returned to his home in Astoria yesterday. Judge Olney filled his place as Representative in the House during the late legislative assembly at Salem with great discomfort to himself being an invalid most of the time, and he returns home in very shattered health. We hope to hear of his recovery after he shall have resumed the quietude of his own domestic hearth

A BUSINESS IDEA —This evening a new feature in the business life of Portland will be instituted at Russell & Ferry's Real Estate Agency. See advertisement of the auction sale of terminus property, at [illegible] o'clock. The space left at the top and bottom of the advertisement is for the purpose of affording purchasers room to figure up the profits on purchases made at the sale. Property with a prospective value of millions will be sold for a mere nominal sum

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" —This great sensational American drama from the pen of Mrs Harriet Beecher Stowe is now in rehearsal at Oro Fino Theater and will soon be produced by the present company with all the stage properties, mechanical effects scenery etc. This is a touching and pathetic play—a real mimic of Southern life—and when performed up to its proper conception, never fails to attract big paying houses

TAKING THE MONEY WEST —J Seligman & Co of New York City, the same firm which had business connections with Elfelt & Co of this city drew the $100 000. Col Crosby of Chicago of Gen Sheridan's Staff drew the $19 000 prize which was reported to have been drawn by Eli Merrill of this city. We hear of nobody in Oregon who really drew even a small sum

ARTISTIC —The new jewelry establishment of Mr J G Miller will be about as tasty and elegant as any of the finest stores on the coast. The lettering being done on the show window by Mr Canfill is as artistic as anything that can be found on Broadway. Mr Canfill is certainly an artisan worth to any community in which he may cast his lot

AN EMPLOYEE IN A LINENDRAPER'S SHOP

But as his function was to keep the books she rather wittily said of him that he was not a tradesman, but a man of letters, Writing this as I am now doing, in the very house (now a hotel) in which Madame de la Valiere was born I can only wonder that such passes du Roi indulged in by the late successor to the throne of Louis XIV should have required such ponderous machinery as that of the intervention of a Chief Justice to hush them up The antecedents of Louis Napoleon Bonaparte are such that no additional instance of

A BREACH OF THE SEVENTH COMMANDMENT

Could damage his reputation From a variety of circumstances I believe the explanation of the extreme anxiety which made him invoke the assistance of President Devienne to be this At the time when the Prince Imperial was in very bad health he was certainly under the impression whether truly or not that he was the father of Marguerite Bellanger's boy Imparting his grief to her ... the prospect of being ... in melting moments got him to listen to her complacently when

And that apart from social conventions which he might overrule the direct line of the Napoleons was in any event assured The Emperor who has been so long in the habit of treating France as his washpot and who had reserved to himself by his constitution an absolute power to adopt an heir to the exclusion of Prince Napoleon might very well have caressed the idea over a cigarette that if he lost his legitimate son his power and might would be equal to the achievement of a plebiscite conferring his adoption on an illegitimate one Later the Prince Imperial got better

I ... [illegible]
But one of ... [illegible] you
A ... all of ... [illegible]
It's the who ... [illegible]
This love I am bearing for you

This love it so fills up my heart, my dear
Sure there's room for naught else to creep in
... from the good of myself you see
That my heart is kept free from all sin
For while thinking of you
It's no evil I do
So my heart is kept free from all sin

Then you are a talisman true my dear
To drive from me evil away
And as charms of the kind are usually worn
Round the neck do you mind ... every day
'Twould be well done you are
For you ever to be
Round my neck, like a charm every day

An ingenuous young wife tells her oppressed sisters how to come it over the tyrant man When I want a nice snug day all to myself she says, I tell George dear mother is coming, and then I see nothing of him until one in the morning

Chillicothe Ohio enjoys a higher pressure of 'fever-n-agur' to the square inch than any other locality within the limits of this great and glorious Republic Her people point with justifiable exultation to four citizens over a hundred years old who have never been able to stop shaking long enough to die

The Methodist wishes that Christian men would remember God in their business affairs Too many it says, if they were honest would declare as the old man did who said When I start on an errand of mercy and stop to deal in horses, I never have good luck The fact is, I don't want the Lord around when I'm trading horses '

Gen McClellan, who is superintending the construction of a sort of Noah's ark with the modern improvements called the Stevens Battery in New York, and is chief consulting engineer of three or four railroads finds his idle hours so irksome that his friends wanted to give him the superintendency of the New York police as a pastime

MASSACHUSETTS -- Young John Quincy Adams thus facetiously accepts the Democratic nomination for Governor of Massachusetts

QUINCY Oct 13 1870

Hon James M Keith President of the Convention—Dear Sir Presuming that my declared desire to withdraw from the candidacy would have insured the dismissal of my name from the minds of the Convention at Fitchburg the nomination announced by you in your favor of this date, which I have the honor to acknowledge, was somewhat unexpected by me.

Differing in that respect from my eloquent competitor, I have for three years past wished to be Governor of Massachusetts very much but having failed to discover the receipt city of sentiment among a majority of my fellow citizens, which is so desirable in such cases ... it would be wise for the Democracy to select a more attractive candidate

But the Convention having apparently decided a value in my services which had escaped my observation, it would be arrogating an absurd importance to my individual preferences to persist in an obstinate and ungracious refusal of so small a sacrifice, to a body of citizens from whom I have accepted such flattering favors

TO THE UNFORTUNATE,

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency, etc Skin Disease (of yearsstanding) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences ... from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation they sandesuffe until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible ... destroying maladies ... that they are cured and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private disease his special study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and attiring of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoemakers newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure

Address DR J F GIBBON 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco Post Office Box 252
